What to bring and how to I prepare?

Considering our lovely weather isn't always reliable, often we decide on an indoor studio session. This all depends on where we are in the year when you reach 35 weeks. I do two looks for indoor which is jeans and white t and then also a more glam look. I find a ball gown or fish tale will shape you fantastically. I have a rail of dresses but I do suggest you bring your own as everyone holds a baby different. You might find something you have at home that you never got out of the wardrobe. Consider underwear and strapless bras, in both black, white and nude. Some women want the more boudoir look which is also fabulous.

If you are carrying over spring and summer there is several spots I like to take maternity shoots at but open to all suggestions. Again I would suggest two looks, jeans and white t with a maybe maxi and flip flops if doing the beach thing.

You're welcome to bring your baby scan or any little booties you've picked up for baby.

A maternity session is super relaxed and not timed retrained. It's a good idea to bring snacks and water for yourself and maybe a towel if heading to beach, god knows it gets everywhere. Partners are welcome too and again asked to compliment what you desire to wear. Please note writing or heavy patterns do not photograph well. Consider your feet wear also as we want you to be comfortable.

Throughout the session we can introduce family set ups and experiment with posing. If you are bringing other children again just tie in the colours in clothing. This is age appropriate so let me know of all ages on booking. Ultimately we are here to have a relaxed session and capture beautiful photos of your pregnancy and perhaps family life.

Often Mums come alone which is ok too.

It's a good idea to consider where your images are going within the home. Are you doing a feature wall on staircase or in living room? Or are you looking a coffee table album? Maybe take some images of around your home to focus on creating this at your session.

And obviously you'll be back for your new-born images.

Who can come and where do we find you?

It's recommended one adult there to help you. As space is tight this is all I'm able to accommodate. My address is 507 CRUMLIN ROAD, BELFAST BT14 7GA. Located above the Nail Lounge at Ardoyne shops with access via side door. As I'm upstairs I'm not accessible for prams but you can bring your carseat or I can come and help you if you ring the bell.

Deposit and Payments

A Maternity photoshoot is priced at £150, to be paid IN FULL on booking via either paypal or bank transfer. My paypal is carrie@carriemckee.com. This is non refundable or transferable for another date as my diary is usually fully booked 2 months in advance. If you need to cancel, I ask for at least 48 hrs notice so the space can be given to another family. Cancellations less than 24hrs will receive an invoice for slot as chances are it can't be refilled. I only take bookings over the phone as I like to speak to anyone coming as I'm a bit old school and like to talk.

**You will also be required to confirm your booking one week before.

What is included?

Your £150 session fee includes full use of my props, studio, outfits and travel (if required for outdoors). Also including the production of your gallery and post session viewing of images.

After your session your images will be edited and presented to you on a returning viewing session. This is usually a week after your session sometimes less but slot will be agreed on meeting. This is also where you purchase your additional prints, wall arts and canvas's. After your viewing you will receive a link to your online gallery. This is password protected and you will be given a personal password at your session. You can share this with anyone you wish and can always add items in future.

To book please ring 07590368295 between 9 – 5pm Monday to Friday. I may not have time to respond to emails. Thank you.
